

Navigating the Complex Realities of International Divorce & Asset Protection Podcast

Lucy Greenwood, lawyer and guest speaker joins host, Roy Saunders in a podcast for The International Business Structuring Association (IBSA) about the impact divorce can have on residential tax planning, and explores the rocky terrain of dividing marital assets, to include a scenario where companies form part of the marital pot.

The episode scrutinises the valuation challenges of such business at the time of divorce and debates the various methods for balancing or offsetting assets against company shares. Listen closely as we navigate the choppy waters of jurisdictional disputes, comparing English legal intricacies with those of other countries and elucidate the delicate process of relocating children across borders following a separation.
