

Family Maintenance Indexation Calculator.

The International Family Law Group LLP are pleased to launch their new family maintenance indexation calculator. The calculator is a free online tool designed to help people calculate annual indexation changes to family maintenance orders. The app allows calculations to be performed based on the consumer prices index (CPI), the consumer prices index with housing costs (CPIH) and the retail prices index (RPI). The calculator is free to use and does not store or collate any personal data. If anyone has any questions or feedback on the calculator please do not hesitate to contact us by telephone on +44 (0)20 3178 5668 or email at indexation@iflg.uk.com
