

James Netto named as one of the 2023 eprivateclient NextGen Leaders

The International Family Law Group LLP is very proud to announce that Partner James Netto has been awarded the accolade of being named as one of the 2023 eprivate NextGen Leaders.

James specialises in all areas of children law, with particular expertise in international children matters. He is highly experienced and a specialist in international parental child abduction cases alongside cases concerning the international movement of children.

Paula Fox

paula.fox@iflg.uk.com

The International Family Law Group LLP

www.iflg.uk.com

© September 2023