

Michael Allum appears on Resolution Podcast to discuss claims under Schedule 1 (financial provision for children)

Partner Michael Allum & Nicholas Allen KC of 29 Bedford Row appeared on this month's edition of the Resolution podcast to discuss financial claims which can be brought for the benefit of children under Schedule 1 Children Act 1989.

Nick & Michael discuss how claims under Schedule 1 differ from those that can be brought on divorce, the new top-up provisions following the recent case of James v Seymour, and the rare circumstances where the court has the power to make outright provision for the benefit of a child under Sch 1.
