Testimonials

'A formidable team with unsurpassed knowledge of international family law. If you have a jurisdiction battle, you want someone from this team on your side'.

‘Michael Allum is second to none! He would make himself available during weekends or late evenings. Michael Allum was an outstanding advocate for me at what was probably the most difficult time in my life. He was kind, thoughtful and understanding as well as being thoroughly professional and knowledgeable and he got me through the divorce and settlement process as smoothly as I could ever have imagined’.

‘I valued Lucy Greenwood’s unwavering support and patience – she understood that I was in a very complex situation dealing with laws in three countries, family matters and financial matters. She was extremely communicative and responsive and always provided excellent answers to my questions’.

‘Lucy Loizou is incredibly knowledgeable in her field. I have felt completely secure in her capable hands. She is down to earth, no nonsense, plain talking and yet super friendly. From our first phone call, she immediately understood the situation and has explained the process to me step by step. She is incredibly patient with me yet fierce and determined in my defence. The perfect combination. Lucy has made the painful process as painless as it could have been’.

‘Helen Blackburn is one of the most experienced international children lawyers around. Her practice is almost exclusively High Court and Court of Appeal based. She has an excellent knowledge of her subject area which she combines with great judgment and an impressive client skill. She is the most meticulous solicitor I have come across. She inspires confidence in her clients and counsel alike with her calm, confident manner. She is undoubtedly one of the sharpest knives in the drawer!’

‘James Netto is a star solicitor. He has grown from an excellent junior, one of the faces of the Law Society’s advertising campaign to being an established practitioner. He has excellent judgment and unparalleled flair in representing young clients in complex cases’.

David Hodson – ‘What he doesn’t know about International Family work isn’t worth knowing’

Ann Thomas – ‘Brilliant client skills and a delight to work with’

Lucy Greenwood – ‘A brilliant strategist who chooses her legal team very carefully’

Lucy Loizou – ‘Leads the team superbly’

Michael Allum – ‘One of the best legal minds in the business. He will be a star in the family law world for many years to come’

Helen Blackburn – ‘Whether instructed by her or in a case against her, you will absolutely need to bring your ‘A’ game’

‘iFLG has established a stellar reputation since it was established – the ultimate niche family law practice. The team has great strength on the financial side and the children side of family law and an unrivalled grasp of the international dimensions. David Hodson continues in the top league of London Family lawyers’

We would like to express our gratitude to all of our clients who took the time to act as referees. Thank you.
