As its name suggests, the International Family Law Group (iFLG) specialises in all aspects of family law. This includes separation and divorce, adoption, surrogacy, parental responsibilities, relationship agreements and enforcement orders.

Founded in 2007, the firm recently moved to premises close to St Paul's Cathedral in the City of London. It includes among its clients business leaders, entrepreneurs and high and ultra-high-net-worth individuals as well as media personalities and sports stars.

iFLG regularly works with the International Child Abduction and Contact Unit on child abduction cases, advises clients on financial provision matters in England after an overseas divorce, and represents wealthy individuals on issues involving businesses and trusts that have an international aspect.

Over the years the firm has forged close links with a variety of specialist overseas law firms. These include Watts McCray, one of Australia's best-known family law practices, which focuses on often complex international cases.
