Agata Osińska

Senior Associate & Mediator

Agata is a Senior Associate and Mediator at The International Family Law Group LLP.

As a Mediator, Agata is committed to helping families find the right resolution for them and alleviate the stress and tensions associated with separation.

Agata advises families in all aspects of family law that come with a relationship breakdown. She is a specialist in financial and children cases.

Agata has a particular interest in the cross-border cases. She handles a wide variety of financial matters including pre and post-marital agreements, cohabitation agreements, financial proceedings following a divorce, asset freezing and tracing, financial provisions for children and proceedings after a foreign divorce.

In respect of Agata's experience in children cases, she advises parents, and other close family members, in all matters concerning children. She has a particular interest in the relocation of children both out of the jurisdiction of England and Wales and when a parent wants to move (or has moved) to another part of the country.

A particular interest Agata has, is in respect of cryptocurrencies and other digital assets which will become increasingly prevalent in family proceedings.

Agata speaks fluent Polish and intermediate Dutch and French..
