Chambers UK 2024

James is a Partner at The International Family Law Group LLP.

He specialises in all areas of children law, with particular expertise in international children matters.

James is a Solicitor Advocate, and regularly conducts his own advocacy in the Family Court and also in the High Court.

James is highly experienced in cases concerning the international movement of children. He is a specialist in international parental child abduction cases and is regularly instructed by the parents and children within the UK and abroad, as well as by the Central Authority.

In a series of firsts, James was involved in the first 1980 Hague Convention child abduction case between Japan and the UK, the first cases concerning the inherent jurisdiction and the 1996 Hague Convention to reach the UK Supreme Court, the first appeal case to concern the interpretation of Brussels II Revised enforcement provisions, and the first reported cases of children being returned to Algeria and to Sudan. He has also acted for clients in many high-profile and widely reported appeals, interventions and committals.

James is much in demand as a speaker at seminars and conferences both within the UK and abroad. He is one of just a handful of lawyers admitted to Bar of Akrotiri and Dhekelia, having appeared in what is thought to be the first international children case in that jurisdiction.

James is a Resolution Accredited Specialist in Child Abduction and in European and International Law.

James was shortlisted as Young Solicitor of the Year in 2017, and in 2018 he was 'highly commended' as Junior Solicitor of the Year at the Law Society Excellence Awards. His work has also been shortlisted in the 2020 Legal Week Innovation Awards, and the 2020 Family Law Awards. He is regularly ranked in both Chambers and Partners and in the Legal 500 for his work in international children matters.

James was named as one of the NextGen ePrivateClient Leaders List 2023.

He was also named as one of the Top 15 NextGen Family Lawyers – CityWealth Leaders List 2023.

James is fluent in Spanish and French, with a high level of German.

James' work was praised in representing two teenage children within child abduction proceedings. In the final paragraph of his analysis and conclusions in the judgment of M (Children) (Abduction: Joinder of Children) [2021] EWHC 635 (Fam) – “Mr James Netto is a solicitor of great experience who specialises in international child abduction proceedings. I am confident that he will properly discharge his duties as guardian to the older children and conduct proceedings on their behalf in accordance with their interests. As I have said, I consider that it is in their best interests that he be appointed to fulfil that role.” High Court Judge – (January 2021).
