‘Sarah Cornes is extremely professional. She provides good and thorough advice to the lay clients and delivers it in a very sensible manner’

Chambers UK 2020

Sarah is a Partner at The International Family Law Group LLP.

She has practised as a specialist family solicitor since 1989 in London and Surrey.

Prior to joining iFLG, she was Head of the Family Team at a large regional law firm. Sarah undertakes all aspects of divorce and family work for married, unmarried and LGBT+ couples in finance, forum and children cases. Sarah advises in high net worth finance cases and particularly those concerning complex businesses and trusts and with an international dimension. She also handles pre- and post-nuptial agreements. She acts for parents in international and domestic children disputes.

Sarah has always been on the innovative side of family law and whether as a mediator, collaborative lawyer or solicitor, Sarah is committed to guiding clients expertly and sensitively through the process of relationship breakdown, and with the wealth of expertise that over 30 years as a specialist family practitioner brings.
